

AID CLIMBING HELP

Multi-purpose adjustable stirrup, super compact and lightweight, contained in a handy bag which can be clipped to the harness.

Simply open the Velcro flap in order to free the stirrup and it is ready to use.

Very useful in resting situations, during recovery of the second climber and in aid climbing in general.

Great for budding climbing photographers!

Made with 3 mm aramidic cord and equipped with a length adjustment buckle and stiff pedal made of ultra-durable nylon.

Connector included. High quality product, completely made in Italy!
